This list shows the names and number of polls as they appear in each road district from the Freeport Tax Book (1810-1825.) For tax amount see the original manuscript at the Freeport Library. Thank you to Vicki Lowe, Assistant Librarian, for making this manuscript accessible and helping to proof the transcription.

"To John Dunning surveyor of roads in Freeport for the year 1812 you are hereby required to cause each person named in this bill to work out the several sums annexed to their names on the following roads. Beginning at Col. George Rogers house thence on the road to Brunswick line. Allowing to each man one dollar ..for oxen 85 cents, for plows 50 cents, for carts 25 cents per day. For which this shall be your sufficient warrant and you are requested to cause the whole of the within sum to be worked out by the first of August next by which time you are to make note... of this bill and your doings thereon. Given under our hands the 17th day of April A.D. 1812."

Nathan Wesson, Thomas Bicknell, Thomas B. White, Selectmen of Freeport.
